

As a concerned citizen of this democratic nation and as a consumer of the media, I beg you not to allow further consolidation of the media into fewer and fewer hands. It will contribute to the destruction of open public debate from multiple viewpoints, among many other negative consequences. Thank you.